

10 Days of Prayer 2019. - Day# 10, Praying with Insight By: Zach Sloane

Welcome to day ten!

It's our last day but please feel free to print off the directives, save the videos, and use them as a guide as we go into 2019.

Make a habit of prayer, let it become a value and let God shape your heart with his desires and concerns for His house, His people, and His purpose.

When it comes to prayer it's important to know what God wants to do, to have insight. One aspect of praying with insight Holy Spirit revealing to us what God's will is in any given situation.

1 Corinthians 2:9-10

9 But as it is written: "Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, Nor have entered into the heart of man The things which God has prepared for those who love Him." 10 But God has revealed them to us through His Spirit. For the Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God.

We also know that God's grand, overarching plan under which all else is subsumed is this: To fill the earth with knowledge of His glory, by revealing His Son through you and me, through us the church. This is what we were predestined for.

Romans 8:29 (NKJV)

For whom He foreknew, He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son, that He might be the firstborn among many brethren.

Praying with insight can be informed by our perspective.

Isaiah 6:3 (NKJV)

And one cried to another and said: "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; The whole earth is full of His glory!"

What you can see is determined by your perspective.

Mountain top perspective (seated wth Christ in heavenly places)
(Revelation 21:10)

vs.

Wilderness / Valley Perspective - one shaped by anything less than the view point of being saturated in the presence of Jesus and seated with Him.
(Revelation 17: 3)

Lets Pray:

Pray for the Person and finished work of Jesus to fill the vision and perspective of every believer.

Pray that each of us is captured by God's passion and purpose for His house at Impact, SW Ontario and beyond.

Pray for the revealing of Christ in us. That we would all live out of His life, power, and presence within.

Pray that our attention, focus and perspective this year is infused with the reality of our immersion into Christ and His presence, and let us see and live from the vantage point of being seated with Him in heavenly places.
