“Imagination is More important than knowledge.”

Imagination doesn't look for evidence it looks for opportunity.

What God is calling you to do does not even exist yet.

Don't look for affirmation ... no one gets it.

When you are dreaming for God it will not just benefit you.

When a dream is from God it is for the blessing of others.

People with imagination get excited over nothing!!!

Philippians 4:2-7 “I implore Euodia and I implore Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord. And I urge you also, true companion, help these women who labored with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the Book of Life ...”

“...Rejoice in the Lord always. Again I will say, rejoice! Let your gentleness be known to all men. The Lord is at hand. Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; ...”

“...and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.”

“Transformation is my favorite game and, in my experience,, anger and frustration are the result of you not being authentic somewhere in your life or with someone in your life. Being fake about anything creates a block inside of you. Life can't work for you if you don't show up as you.” Jason Mraz

Frustration rises when you have made an investment and the return does not meet your expectation.
Unresolved disappointment.

“... and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.”

Judges 11:1-11 Jephthah turned his faction into function. Jephthah:-- (yif-tawkh) to open for oneself.

Now Jephthah the Gileadite was a mighty man of valor, but he was the son of a harlot; and Gilead begot Jephthah. 2 Gilead's wife bore sons; and when his wife's sons grew up, they drove Jephthah out, and said to him, "You shall have no inheritance in our father's house, for you are the son of another woman." 3 Then Jephthah fled from his brothers and dwelt in the land of Tob; and worthless men banded together with Jephthah and went out raiding with him.

4 It came to pass after a time that the people of Ammon made war against Israel. 5 And so it was, when the people of Ammon made war against Israel, that the elders of Gilead went to get Jephthah from the land of Tob.

6 Then they said to Jephthah, "Come and be our commander, that we may fight against the people of Ammon."

7 So Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "Did you not hate me, and expel me from my father's house? Why have you come to me now when you are in [a]distress?"

8 And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "That is why we have turned[b] again to you now, that you may go with us and fight against the people of Ammon, and be our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead."

9 So Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "If you take me back home to fight against the people of Ammon, and the Lord delivers them to me, shall I be your head?"

10 And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "The Lord will be a witness between us, if we do not do according to your words." 11 Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and commander over them; and Jephthah spoke all his words before the Lord in Mizpah.

1. He had a tough start.

...but he was the son of a harlot."

2. He was severely rejected.

"You shall not have an inheritance in our father's house..."

Your pain often has its source in someone else's behaviour.

3. Wise Response

"...dwelt in the land of Tob;"

Tob:—to be good, be pleasing, be joyful, be beneficial, be pleasant, be favourable, be happy, be right.
