

Luke 2:1-20

“...she brought forth her firstborn Son, and wrapped Him in swaddling cloths, and laid Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn. Now there were in the same country shepherds living out in the fields,...”

Why isn't anyone listening to this guy?

In a commonplace
environment:

Do we perceive beauty?

Do we stop to appreciate it?

Do we recognize the talent
in an unexpected context?

Hebrews 1:2-3

“...in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world. He is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of his nature...”

Do you hear what I hear?

Many hear but few really listen.

So much NOISE today!

If you listen closely you can hear a sweet melody of God's Love drawing near!

“But denunciatory rhetoric is so much easier and cheaper than good works, and proves a popular temptation. Yet is it far better to light the candle than to curse the darkness.”

William Lonsdale Watkinson

John 8:12

“Jesus spoke to them, saying, ‘I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.’”
