“...oh, what a day! -- I cannot describe it, I seldom refer to it; it is almost too sacred an experience to name ... I can only say that God revealed Himself to me, and I had such an experience of His love that I had to ask Him to stay His hand ... I would not now be placed back where I was before that blessed experience if you should give me all the world -- it would be as the small dust of the balance.” D. L. Moody
